

Missing Child Policy

This policy applies to all pupils and staff of Abbot's Hill, including EYFS.

This policy should be read in conjunction with the policies on Supervision of Pupils and Pupil Attendance.

Introduction

1. All children, regardless of their circumstances, are entitled to a full time education which is suitable to their age, ability, aptitude and any special educational needs they may have. Local authorities have a duty to establish, as far as it is possible to do so, the identity of children of compulsory school age who are missing education in their area.
2. A child going missing from education is a potential indicator of abuse or neglect. Abbot's Hill staff should be alert to children that go missing from education, particularly on repeat occasions, to help identify the risk of abuse and neglect, including sexual exploitation, and to help prevent the risks of their going missing in future.

What staff should be aware of

3. It is essential that all staff are alert to signs to look out for and the individual triggers to be aware of when considering the risks of potential safeguarding concerns such as travelling to conflict zones, FGM and forced marriage. Details are included in Annex A of Keeping Children Safe in Education (2018) which is provided to all staff working directly with children. Any concerns about pupils missing from education should be reported in the same way as other safeguarding concerns.

Admissions and attendance registers

4. The law requires the school to have an admissions register and an attendance register. All pupils must be placed on both registers.
 - The Registrar is responsible for placing pupils on the admissions register, in accordance with the requirements of the Independent School Standard Regulations and for removing them from this.
 - Attendance registers are completed by Nursery staff, Class Teachers (Prep School) and Form Tutors (Senior School) and are collated by Main Reception.

Actions to be taken if a child goes missing from education

The Headmistress will ensure that the local authority is informed of any pupil who is going to be deleted from the admission register. This will be in accordance with the Children Missing Education Statutory Guidance (September 2016). Full details are in Appendix A.

5. This will be done as soon as the grounds for deletion are met, but no later than deleting the pupil's name from the register. It is essential that Abbot's Hill School complies with this duty, so that the local authority can, as part of their duty to identify children of compulsory school age who are missing education, follow up with any child who might be in danger of not receiving an education and who might be at risk of abuse or neglect.

6. We will also inform the local authority of any pupil who fails to attend school regularly, or has been absent without the school's permission for a continuous period of 10 school days or more, at such intervals as are agreed between the School and the local authority (or in default of such agreement, at intervals determined by the Secretary of State).

Monitoring pupils during the school day

7. The safety and security of the children in our care are paramount. Every care is taken to ensure that the children are accounted for at all times when they are in our care.
8. Each pupil is registered at the start of the school day. Young children are handed in to the care of their Class Teacher or the Breakfast Club team, whilst older pupils come in on their own and make their way to their form room or tutor base.
 - In the Senior School, pupils may go directly to their Common Room before moving on to Breakfast Club or Registration.
 - Prep School pupils arriving before 8.00am are asked to register in the Main Reception, where a member of staff is on duty from 7.30am.
 - From 8.00 am Prep School pupils in Years 3-6 can be supervised in the playground.
 - Pupils in Reception – Year 2 are supervised at Breakfast Club before being escorted to their classrooms at the start of the school day.
 - Children in Nursery are signed in and out by Nursery staff when they arrive and leave and their whereabouts during the school day is monitored and documented by Nursery staff.
9. An afternoon register is taken in the Prep School before lessons begin, whilst in the Senior School, girls are registered as they go into lunch.
10. During the school day and on educational visits, staff maintain a high level of supervision and are aware of the location of the children in their care.
11. Main Reception collates the attendance registers each morning and afternoon and circulates an absence list to all staff. This is monitored by staff with pastoral responsibilities in order to identify any potential safeguarding risks.
12. Pupils leaving the school site for educational visits are supervised according to the arrangements outlined in the AHS Journeys handbook. The correct staff:pupil ratios are adhered to. Staff implement strategies to ensure the safety of all pupils, which includes full risk assessments. Head counts take place frequently when pupils are off site.
13. However, in the unlikely event that after a roll call or at another time it is noticed that a child has gone missing, whether in school or out, the following procedure will be followed:
 - Staff will maintain the safety and well-being of other children
 - A roll call will be taken
 - Consideration will be given to setting off the fire alarms and evacuating everyone from the buildings across the School site
 - A member of the Senior Management Team and at least one other member of staff will search the immediate vicinity or school grounds, going to places at which the pupil was last seen, tracing the routes that they may have taken.
 - If the child is not found after approximately 45 minutes, or as reasonable in the circumstances, the Headmistress (or Deputy Head, in her absence) will endeavour to contact the parents of the missing pupil by telephone.

- The Headmistress (or Deputy Head, in her absence) will contact the police if the parents have not been contacted, after such period of time as is appropriate in the individual circumstances.
 - Once the police or parents (as appropriate to the situation) arrive, the School will liaise closely with them as to the appropriate course of action.
 - If off-site, a member of staff will remain with the police to comfort the child when found and maintain contact with the School so long as the safety of the rest of the party is not compromised, in particular with reference to the staff/pupil ratio, as a result.
14. Following any incident where a pupil has gone missing, a written report must be produced to include what happened, the actions taken and the reasons for the pupil being missing.
15. Measures and procedures will be monitored, reviewed and updated regularly as appropriate.
