

Independent Day School for girls 4 - 16 years
Day Nursery & Pre-School for girls & boys from 6 months

Abbot's Hill

Head of History
Required for September 2024

Our Heritage

We trace our roots back to 1912 when Abbot's Hill was founded on the present site by Alice, Katrine and Mary Baird, advocates of education for girls. The Baird sisters ran a school in the Malverns and in May 1912 they opened Abbot's Hill as an independent boarding school for 'young women of character'.

The School's Main Building was originally built in 1836 by the paper manufacturer, John Dickinson, as a home for him and his family and he named it Abbot's Hill. The Dickinson family founded one of the world's largest stationery firms of the 19th and 20th centuries.

On John Dickinson's death in 1869, Abbot's Hill passed to his only surviving son John and then in 1908 to Sir Arthur Evans. Arthur Evans, the Archaeologist and discoverer of Knossos, was John Dickinson's great-grandson and had spent part of his childhood at Abbot's Hill. He did not however return to live there but arranged for it to be sold to the Baird sisters.

Over the years, the school has developed and grown in a variety of ways, but the key milestones in its history were in 1969, when St Nicholas House School moved to the Abbot's Hill site to form the Junior Department and in 2003, when boarding ceased. However, Abbot's Hill retains its boarding feel, which is to be seen in the emphasis given to co-curricular pursuits, the intrinsic importance of pastoral care and the school's strong sense of community.

The School

Founded over 100 years ago to educate young women of character, Abbot's Hill School places great value on the development of the individual. At the heart of our school is an evolving and flexible curriculum, alive to the need to prepare today's pupils for the world of tomorrow.

We are ambitious for all our pupils and they excel here. We value their voices and embrace our diverse community. As we empower them, so they empower each other and, in so doing, develop a deep sense of responsibility for their community at school, locally and in the wider world.

Children and young people will thrive best where they have a strong connection to their school and more particularly the adults who teach them. We are so proud of the quality of relationships here. The experienced professionals at Abbot's Hill take seriously their responsibility to positively shape the lives of the young people in their care. Our aim is that each individual will discover their own brilliance.

So it is that pupils at Abbot's Hill embark on a series of journeys during their time with us. The first journey, the academic journey through our well-planned and sequenced curriculum, will enrich, excite and stimulate their minds. Knowledgeable, discerning and well-informed, our pupils will be inquisitive, enquiring learners who love to learn both now and throughout their lives.

The second journey through school is the development of the values and attributes that will stand them in good stead as adults both personally and professionally. A clear set of values therefore shapes our interactions as a community and underpins our code of conduct. This unequivocal moral guidance prepares pupils to positively challenge bias and navigate with confidence the world we live in.

The third journey, the journey where we work most closely with parents, is the development of character. The attributes of collaboration, critical thinking, creativity, and communication are consciously developed and embedded through rich and varied curricular and co-curricular opportunities and so the pupils become self-aware and self-confident.

In the modern world today where the pace of change is rapid an Abbot's Hill education has tremendous relevance. Kindness, humanity and resilience will be the defining characteristics of this generation and these qualities resonate through our school.

Mrs Kathryn Gorman BA, MEd (Cantab)

Head

Abbot's Hill recruits staff that understand and share our commitment to safeguarding and the provision of a happy, nurturing and supportive environment for all members of our community. We act to ensure that no job applicant is treated unfairly by reason of a protected characteristic as defined within the Equalities Act 2010.

All questions regarding the Abbot's Hill School Application Form and recruitment process must be directed to the school's Human Resources Department at recruitment@abbotshill.herts.sch.uk.

Application Form

Applications will only be accepted from candidates completing the Abbot's Hill School Application Form in full. CVs will not be accepted in substitution for completed Application Forms.

Application Forms can be completed electronically or in hard copy. Completed application forms should be returned to the HR Department by email: recruitment@abbotshill.herts.sch.uk.

As jobs within the school involve substantial opportunity for access to children, it is important that you provide true and accurate information on the Application Form. Upfront disclosure of a criminal record may not debar you from appointment as we will consider the nature of the offence, how long ago and at what age it was committed, as well as any other relevant factors.

Please submit information in confidence enclosing details in a separate sealed envelope which will be seen and then destroyed by the Head or the Bursar. If you would like to discuss this beforehand, please telephone in confidence to the Head or the Bursar for advice. Please disclose any unspent convictions, cautions, reprimands or warnings.

Note that the amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected' and are not subject to disclosure to employers, and cannot be taken into account.

Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found at the Disclosure and Barring Service website.

The successful applicant will be required to complete a Disclosure Form from the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) for the post. Additionally, successful applicants should be aware that they are required to notify the school immediately if there are any reasons why they should not be working with children. This includes any staff who are disqualified from childcare or registration.

The Childcare (Disqualification) Regulations 2009 apply to those providing early years childcare or later years childcare, including before school and after school clubs, to children who have not attained the age of 8 and to those who are directly concerned in the management of that childcare.

Abbot's Hill School takes its responsibility to safeguard children very seriously and any staff member and/or successful candidate who is aware of anything that may affect their suitability to work with children must notify the school immediately. This will include notification of any convictions, cautions, court orders, reprimands or warnings they may receive. They must also notify the school immediately if they are living in a household where anyone lives or works who has been disqualified from working with children or from registration for the provision of childcare.

Staff and/or successful candidates who are disqualified from childcare or registration may apply to Ofsted for a waiver of disqualification. Such individuals may not be employed in the areas from which they are disqualified, or involved in the management of those settings, unless and until such waiver is confirmed. Please speak to the Head or the Bursar for more details.

Failure to declare any convictions (that are not subject to DBS filtering) may disqualify you for appointment or result in summary dismissal if the discrepancy comes to light subsequently.

Abbot's Hill has a legal duty under section 26 of the Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015 to have 'due regard to the need to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism'. This is known as the Prevent duty. Schools are required to assess the risk of children being drawn into terrorism, including support for extremist ideas that are part of terrorist ideology. Accordingly, as part of the recruitment process, when an offer is made the offer will be subject to a Prevent duty risk assessment.

If you are currently working with children, on either a paid or voluntary basis, your current employer will be asked about disciplinary offences, including disciplinary offences relating to children or young persons (whether the disciplinary sanction is current or time expired), and whether you have been the subject of any child protection allegations or concerns and if so the outcome of any enquiry or disciplinary procedure.

If you are not currently working with children but have done so in the past, that previous employer will be asked about those issues.

Where neither your current nor previous employment has involved working with children, your current employer will still be asked about your suitability to work with children. Where you have no previous employment history, we may request character references which may include references from your school or university.

You should be aware that provision of false information is an offence and could result in the application being rejected or summary dismissal if you have been appointed, and a possible referral to the police and/or DBS.

Closing dates will be 7 May 2024.

Interview dates will be held shortly thereafter.

Applications will be reviewed as they are received and we reserve the right to appoint at any stage of the process.

Applicants will be short-listed according to the relevance and applicability of their professional attributes and personal qualities to the role. Short-listed applicants will then be invited to attend a formal interview at which their relevant skills and experience will be discussed in more detail.

All formal interviews will have a panel of at least two people chaired by a member of Senior Staff. The interviewers involved will be required to state any prior personal relationship or knowledge of any of the candidates and a judgement will be made by the Head or Bursar as to whether or not an interviewer should therefore withdraw from the panel.

Should the Head or Bursar have a conflict of interest, the non-conflicted party shall decide whether the conflicted party should withdraw from the panel.

All candidates invited to interview must bring documents confirming any educational and professional qualifications that are necessary or relevant for the post (e.g. the original or certified copy of certificates, diplomas etc.)

Where originals or certified copies are not available for the successful candidate, written confirmation of the relevant qualifications must be obtained by you from the awarding body.

It is the school's practice that a successful candidate must complete a pre-employment health questionnaire. The information contained in the questionnaire will then be held by the school in strictest confidence. This information will be reviewed against the Job Description and the Person Specification for the particular role, together with details of any other physical or mental requirements of the role i.e. proposed workload, co-curricular activities, layout of the school.

Abbot's Hill School is aware of its duties under the Equality Act 2010.
